

CLA Releases Briefing Paper on Copyright Reform

Wednesday, 17 September 2008

The Canadian Library Association has released a detailed briefing paper on Bill C-61 entitled Unlocking the Public Interest.Â Noting that the Bill has died on the order paper with the dissolution of Parliament, CLA is still presenting its brief because the principles addressed in the bil "are long-standing and deserving of comment."

Â